ANTI-DEFACEMENT COMMITTEE NOTICE

In response to the order/judgment of the NGT/ Honourable High Court of Delhi, the University of Delhi has decided to follow, observe and implement the Lyngdoh Committee recommendations in regard to the DUSU and college Students' Union Elections. All the contestants and their supporters are informed that defacement in any form of any property/structure in or out of the college campus, will attract strict action which may lead to imposition of heavy fines by court of law and/or imprisonment.

All the concerned are requested to adhere to the Lyngdoh Committee recommendations, NGT order, Code of Conduct, Constitution of DUSU, Hon'ble Delhi High Court order dated 29.05.2018 in W.P (C) No. 7824/2017 titled "Prashant Manchanda v. Union of India & Ors (Defacement Case)" and the provisions of the Delhi Prevention of Defacement of Property Act, 2007. For more details, you may consult the D.U. website.

All the students and the members of teaching and non-teaching staff are requested to kindly cooperate and to be vigilant to ensure that there is no violation of the said order/judgment.
