SESSION ON START-UPS AND PERSONAL BRANDING

The world of entrepreneurship has evolved by leaps and bounds in the last decade or so. A common dilemma students face arises on account of whether or not college is the right time to start a start-up. Under the National Entrepreneurship Challenge, a session was organised with Mr. Daniel Ramamoorthy, an entrepreneur, speaker and executive coach. His fiery personality and his motto of “Start Now, Start Simple” inspired the students to take to the wheel themselves.

A collage of business-related graphics and text. The top left features the text "CORPORATE RELATIONS" with a dollar sign icon and a paragraph: "The backbone of any organisation is their finance. The process gets you acquainted with the corporate world and helps you build better connections via Walk-ins and negotiations over call." Below this is the text "HEADS: RIDDHI SHARMA & KASHISH GOYAL". The top right has a yellow banner with the word "DEPART". The middle right has a video thumbnail of a woman. The bottom left has a video thumbnail of a woman with glasses. The bottom middle features the text "IT'S A RICH MANS WORLD" above an illustration of people with money symbols, and "I'M ALL FOR CONVERSATIONS, BUT DO YOU HAVE A MESSAGE?" above an illustration of a woman with a laptop. The bottom right has the text "CONTE" with a red exclamation mark icon, followed by a paragraph: "Content Heads develop a strategy aligned with short-term and long-term marketing targets while collaborating with marketing and design teams to plan and design eye-catching content for various platforms. The information provided by our society, certainly includes social media content, wordpress blogs etc. They put in their effort to spread authentic content." At the bottom right, the text "WITRA & ANSHIKA" is visible.

NEGOCIO'21: Speaker Sessions

The third edition of the annual event Negocio comprised of two events, namely, ENvision and Start-up Domination, along with a series of interactive workshops.

ENvision was a classic B-Plan competition which required the participants to develop blueprint strategies, discover pathways to opportunities, acquire the first mover advantage and come forth a winner. Start-up Domination required them to reassess their priorities, use their wits to formulate, analyse and strategize their next step to assert their dominance.

A series of three workshops were organised. Mr. Divyanshu K, the Vice president- strategy of boat lifestyle on technicalities of market and financial analysis for start-ups and Mr. Sarvesh Kakkeri, co-founder at Xubba focused on the role of ideation in the process of building a successful start-up. For the third workshop, Mr. Avi Arya, a social media marketer spoke about the dos and don'ts of leading through content creation.
