LEGAL AWARENESS ON WOMEN'S EQUALITY

About the speaker : To make the event insightful and to spread awareness, Advocate Niyati Sharma was invited as our speaker for this special occasion. She is one of the brightest civil litigators and has an expertise in POSH act and contracts drafting.

She has completed her graduation in English Literature from Delhi University and LLB from Modern College of Professional Studies. She is a practising Advocate and has been working as a part of legal counsel in North Delhi municipal corporation and as an intern in Delhi High Court. She is currently active as a government pleader as well.

AAGHAAZ - The Women Development Cell of College of Vocational Studies, University of Delhi - organized the much-awaited event of Women's Equality Day on 2nd September 2022. The purpose of celebrating Women's Equality Day is to fill the gap between men and women created by society. Aaghaaz believes that equal and fair societies are more likely to be prosperous and harmonious. The speaker started the session by explaining to us how crimes are reported but also multiply every single day! Importance of Prevention of Sexual Harassment Committee in every college and how important it is for every female out there to be aware of her rights. Unwanted girl child, how some females misuse their rights to report a fake allegation, the importance of self-defence, and the right way of registering an FIR is by stating the facts and not considering the emotional values. The speaker talked about all these points in much detail and made the session quite interactive. She also explained how important it is for every one to be aware of their legal rights so they can help themselves without a lawyer. This was the first offline event of the tenure of 2022-23 which received an impressive feedback from all sides. Aaghaaz had never witnessed these many people before, and it was one of the most beautiful mornings, filled with so many young enthusiasts in the same room!

Report of Aaghaaz X Namhya Event

Date: - 15th September 2022

Venue: - Seminar Hall

Timing: - 11:30am-1:00pm

Aaghaaz: The women's development cell of the college of vocational studies successfully conducted an event on the 15th of September to Spread Awareness on PCOS on the occasion of PCOS awareness month

To conduct this event, Aaghaaz-WDC collaborated with Namhya Foods. It's a leading Ancient Ayurveda brand focussing on helping and curing PCOS and PCOD.

The founder of Namhya Foods Ms. Ridhima Arora was present in our college as our guest speaker to spread awareness of PCOS and PCOD.

In the session, Ms. Arora talked about the myths, facts, and symptoms of PCOD. She shared her personal experiences during the session as well. She also took time to answer the questions of our audience.

Along with the speaker session, Aaghaaz conducted a Quiz for all the students attending the event on the topic of PCOS.

At the end of the session, we also conducted a Jar activity in which we gave the audience 3 Questions and the Audience wrote their answers on a piece of paper and dropped the answer in the jar.

After this, our speaker Ms. Ridhima Arora read the answers and was quite amazed by the great response from the students.

Before the Event, Aaghaaz surveyed our college to collect data on how many students are aware of PCOS and received around 120 responses.

Along with this, we posted an Instagram Reel where we went to random students in our college and asked them questions related to PCOS. We made this reel so that our efforts are not limited to our college campus.

In conclusion, the event was a huge success with a footfall of around 150+ students and an interactive and fun speaker session.

ALLY WEEK REPORT

Aaghaaz, the women's development cell of the College of Vocational Studies successfully conducted an online speaker session on the 25th of September to spread awareness about the meaning and importance of an 'ally', and how it creates a difference in our society.

To make sure our audience was given an in-depth understanding of the LGBTQIA+ community, Ms Prarthana was invited as our guest speaker! She is a queer content creator on YouTube and other social media platforms. She's also an entrepreneur in the hospitality industry.

In the session, Ms Prarthana talked about all the different types of sexualities, the taboos attached to them, and the laws related to the community. She shared her personal experiences and told real-life stories about how people of this community are not accepted in society. Our audience was very interactive and came up with all sorts of questions and doubts they had about the LGBTQIA+ community and our speaker made sure that every question was answered from her side.

The Queer-Collective Wing of Aaghaaz played an important role in conducting the whole webinar and also making it very interesting for our audience by organizing a survey and asking people about their views on why society faces a difficult time in accepting this particular community.

They also did a creative job by interviewing the college professors about Ally Week and understanding their thoughts and views on the same. This was later converted into a reel to spread the word on social media. In conclusion, the event was a huge success with a footfall of around 100+ students and an interactive and fun speaker session!

Day 1(11.10.2022)

Panel Discussion

Date: 11/10/2022

Time: 10:30 PM

Venue: Seminar Hall

Aaghaaz conducted its semi-annual event on 11th-12th October 2022. Along with a number of other sub-events within the 2-day celebration, a rather significant one was the panel discussion that took place on Day 1(i.e..11th Oct). The guest speakers invited for it were Fitness influencer, Rashmi Rai; Entrepreneur and model, Shalini Bhatia, and Yoga teacher, Smriti Vashisht. The three panelists were able to maintain a very energized spirit throughout the discussion. The students actively engaged in conversations with the respected speakers and actively responded to their fun yet honest questions regarding the equation of all the genders in society; how men and women should not be discriminated against because of biological differences, especially women. They laid emphasis on how both men and women should be free to be themselves, and not remain confined to irrational gender norms. One of the panelists even had a spontaneous push-ups competition in which both male and female students enthusiastically participated. They were able to imbibe righteous ethics on empowering women around us, respecting them, and being supportive of them in terms of professional and personal aspects. Men can as much be cooks, dancers, or yoga gurus just as women can be weight lifters, gym enthusiasts, or bike riders. We should all enact for a better, safer, and egalitarian society; this is what the audience went home with. The event was a great success.

She talked about the honor of a woman and what that means to society. Her speaker session involved talking about domestic violence, the usage of abusive words towards females, disrespecting a woman, rape, etc. Her storytelling made the session interesting and even more interactive. A larger number of the audience joined and raised their hands to give their insights. All the Aaghaaz members and non-members were given incredible coupons as refreshments later. The event was a grand success with around 100 people in the seminar hall.

Dr. Anu Satyal
(Convenor)

Aaghaaz organized its orientation program for the new students admitted this year on 14th November, 2022. All the members of the society actively contributed to ensure a smooth functioning of the program. The orientation began with a warm welcome of the freshers with some fun interaction in between. The students were quite enthusiastic to ascertain the functioning and the motive of the cell. The audience was delighted to watch a special dance recital performed by Priyanjana Ghosh, a History Honors student of our college.

This was followed by a brief introduction of each department carried out by their heads and associates respectively. The Harassment Redressal Cell and the Queer Collective cell grabbed the attention of many freshers as it made Aaghaaz stand apart from the rest of the societies.

After addressing and introducing the devoted and enthusiastic core committee members of the society, who briefly described the operations of their respective departments, we kept up the lively spirit and projected a brief behind-the-scenes video of our society, which perfectly captured the enthusiasm and youthfulness of the members.

A quick Q&A session led by our president followed as the video neared its end. After any queries about how various departments functioned were answered, a fun quiz focusing mainly on society was held, with the winners receiving fascinating vouchers.

Aaghaaz surprised everyone with a jamming music session as a part of the closing ceremony of the orientation. All the students in attendance at the seminar hall eagerly applauded the performance by two skilled singers, Aditya Nair and Anshu Goswami.

Aaghaaz- The Women Development cell of the College of Vocational Studies organized Sanyukt 2.0 from 23rd January 2023 to 24th January 2023 which included a speaker session, donation drive, and various music and dance performances.

1) DONATION DRIVE

DATE: 23 January 2023

TIME: 10:30 am onwards

LOCATION: We Care Foundation, Sector 57, Gurugram

A donation drive on the 23rd of January 2023 was organized by Aaghaaz at We Care Foundation, Sector 57, Gurugram, in collaboration with Patripathshala and House Of Care. Around 35 members of Aaghaaz and our convener, Ms. Anu Satyal actively participated in the drive and visited the location. More than 100 children were impacted by this initiative. Our team was actively involved with each and every child present there. We organized different fun activities for the children such as dance, music sessions, and many games, etc with them. Chocolates, toffees, clothes, books, and many other stationery items were distributed among the children. The Founder, Volunteers, and all the children of the NGO were quite happy with this initiative of Aaghaaz.

2) SPEAKER SESSION

DATE: 24 January 2023

TIME: 10:30 am onwards

Sanyukt was organized by Aaghaaz- The Women Development Cell of CVS on the 24th of January in the seminar hall from 10:30 onwards. The day started with a solo dance performance by Priyanjana Ghosh, a student of our college as a part of the opening ceremony. We had Ella'd Verma, a 19-year-old Delhite as our guest speaker who became an inspiration to many. The seminar consisted of more than 200 people. During the session, she talked about all her ups and downs in favor of just being who she is, and the challenges she faced in accepting her identity. She discussed it's not just difficult to be trans but also to dress up according to one's choice. The best learning our audience could get from her is 'It's you who's important more than any society, person, or culture'. The main motive behind her entire discussion was love for oneself.

Aaghaaz, the Women Development Cell of the College of Vocational Studies, Delhi University conducted a speaker session on Project Sparsh on Acid Attack.

One of the most experienced advocates in legal aid and awareness, Advocate Mrinalini Khatri was present as our guest speaker to spread awareness about the acid attack issue.

During the session, Ms Khatri talked about the reasons why such crimes take place. She gave the audience an insight into how it is to go through something so terrible, how it affects the victims and how to save yourself if you are ever attacked. The audience got to learn about the chemical names of those harmful acids. Ms Khatri also shared some real-life cases and her personal experiences to give a better understanding of the issue.

Everyone was taught how to register an FIR and how essential it is to report a crime without fear.

In the end, she also answered all the questions that the audience had and made the session interactive and knowledgeable for everyone.

The event was a huge success with a footfall of around 100+ students and an interactive and fun speaker session.

Day 1:

Manasvini, the annual fest organized by Aaghaaz, the Women Development Cell of CVS, commenced with great enthusiasm on its first day. The fest, dedicated to promoting gender equality, women empowerment, and creating a safe space for the LGBTQIA+ community, witnessed a plethora of events that were both engaging and impactful.

Pride-HRC March:

The highlight of the day was the Pride March, which took place within the premises of College of Vocational Studies. Students, faculty, and staff came together in solidarity, holding colorful banners and placards advocating for LGBTQIA+ rights. The march was a powerful display of support for the community, with participants chanting slogans, dancing, and spreading awareness about the importance of inclusivity and acceptance. The vibrant atmosphere and the sense of unity among the participants were truly inspiring.

Stalls:

The stalls at Manasvini were also an integral part of the first day's events. One unique initiative was a box where people could anonymously share their thoughts and experiences in exchange for a muffin. This creative concept encouraged participants to express themselves freely, providing a platform for them to share their opinions, stories, and perspectives on various social issues. The exchange of muffins for thoughts created a safe space for self-expression and sparked engaging conversations among participants. Many shared their experiences of discrimination, harassment, and stereotyping, while others expressed their hopes, dreams, and aspirations for a more inclusive and equal society.

Collaborations with various Girl-Ups and other organisations had been a hit! And was enjoyed by the whole crowd!

The organizers and volunteers of Manasvini deserve special appreciation for their unwavering efforts in making the first day of the fest a resounding success. Their dedication, hard work, and passion for promoting gender equality and empowerment were evident in the seamless execution of the events. The coordination, creativity, and energy displayed by the team were commendable and set the stage for a memorable fest.

As the fest progressed, there was an anticipation of more exciting events in the coming days. Manasvini promises to be a celebration of womanhood, inclusivity, and empowerment, and the first day has set the tone for an eventful and impactful fest. The participation and engagement of students, faculty, and staff on the first day were indeed encouraging, and it is hoped that the momentum will continue throughout the fest, creating a positive and empowering environment.

Flashmob:

Flashmob came as a great and enjoyable surprise to the audience gathered in the college amphitheatre. A number of members participated and danced their hearts out to many upbeat songs. The song which indirectly inspired us to select the theme of our event 'Banno ki Saheli against Patriarchy' was also included in the playlist. You might already be familiar with the song 'ye ladka hai Allah' from the movie 'kabhi Khushi kabhi gham'. The flashmob lightened up the mood and had quite an entertaining appeal to it. The audience thoroughly enjoyed the performance and the participants loved showing off their dancing skills. Many of the audiences even started taking up photos and videos, perhaps, to capture the fun and joy they were experiencing. Needless to say, Flashmob was definitely a hit.

Nukkad Naatak:

Performed by the one and only, 'Asmita Theatre'. The Nukkad Naatak was based on the Harassment Redressal theme, and conveyed a really deep message! The performers and the audience could feel the pain and the emotions! A standing ovation was received by the theater group! The footfall of 200+ people couldn't take their eyes off such a fantastic performance!

Speaker Session:

The Speaker session for the first day of Manasvini 6.0 was about 'Women in Armed Forces'

Moderated by Mr Vikas Naithani, poet of the book "The Nameless", a military and war poetry book!

The speaker of this session was Major Preeti Sehrawat!

She was escorted by the NCC members. She recited the story of how she joined the army and gained this level of success through all the ups and downs of her life. Her talk was really inspiring for the audience!

Day 2:

Flashmob:

The second day commenced with an energetic and full of vigor flashmob. It came as a great and enjoyable surprise to the audience gathered in the college amphitheatre. A number of members participated and danced their hearts out to many upbeat songs. The flashmob lightened up the mood and had quite an entertaining appeal to it. The audience thoroughly enjoyed the performance and the participants loved showing off their dancing skills. Many of the audience even started taking up photos and videos to preserve this memory. Needless to say, Flashmob was definitely a hit.

The movie portrayed the struggles, emotions, and experiences of LGBTQIA+ individuals in a poignant manner, leaving a deep impact on the viewers.

Following the screening of the movie, an interactive session was held with speakers and the audience. It aimed at challenging the prevalent stereotypes, prejudices, and discrimination faced by individuals based on their sexual orientation or gender identity. The panel discussion facilitated a deeper understanding of the challenges faced by the LGBTQIA+ community and highlighted the need for creating a more inclusive and accepting society.

19th April - Self Defence Workshop

Aaghaaz, The Women Development Cell of College of Vocational Studies, University of Delhi collaborated with National Service Scheme, NSS and organised a Self Defence Workshop!

All the female students of these two cells came together to participate in this insightful session, conducted by the Head Constables of Delhi Police.

The Delhi Police constables gave in-depth knowledge of what is a mistake when it comes to touching someone in a public place and what is a deliberate attempt. The girls were shown various types of demonstrations and examples.

The constables were extremely well-trained and were willing to share every bit of their knowledge and expertise with the students.

They also shared some great techniques on how to be safe in a public place and how to ask for help.

Overall it was a really helpful session for the students of both cells. It was a wonderful opportunity to get trained by the Delhi Police itself!
