14) PLATINUM INDIAN INDEPENDENCE ANNIVERSARY:

National Cadet Corps, College of Vocational Studies celebrated 75th Independence Day with full zeal and enthusiasm. The event started with Flag hoisting, continued by Josh Talk, and fruitfully ended with Blood Donation Camp. Cadets from various other colleges were also a part of the event, like Shaheed Bhagat Singh College (14), Deshbandhu College (5), Sri Aurobindo College (5), Janki Devi Memorial College (6) and Swami Shraddhanand College (5).

Flag Hoisting

One flag is more than just cloth and ink. It is universally recognized symbol that stand for liberty and freedom. It is the history of the nation and it is marked by the blood of those who died defending it. Remembering the soldiers who fell in the line of duty during the freedom struggle and their immense contribution, on Indian Independence Day and celebrating 'Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav'. The theme for this year's celebration was 'Har Ghar Tiranga'. Followed by this cadet of CVS participated in guard of honor and flag hoisting.

Josh Talk

Cadets of CVS invited Col. Atul Kochar (Retd) who was part of Veteran of Operation of IPKF (Indian Peace Keeping Force) where Indian Army lost 1000+ of their soldiers and many injured. Indian Peace Keeping Force (IPKF) was the Indian military contingent performing a peace keeping operation in Sri Lanka between 1987 and 1990. The main task of IPKF is to alert the different military groups. It perpetrated a number of human rights violations including rapes and massacres of civilians. Sir motivated cadets and shared his story with immense pride.

Veer Bhogya Vasundhara is the puissant poem written by Cadet Mayank Sharma of our college.

Soldiers who died in the course of duty deserve special appreciation. They gave up everything, including their lives, fighting to protect the things they believed in. Veer Bhogya vasundhara is well written in a manner that can influence anyone reading it.

Blood Donation Drive

Blood donation drive was organized in collaboration with "I am still human" with and for the INDIAN ARMY.

Many Cadets and many students came forward and volunteered for blood donation. Blood donation was a huge success. All the officers, professional and nursing assistants praised the enthusiasm and participation by the CVS students.
