Subject: Requesting permission to organise the 2nd Edition of the CVS
PARLIAMENTARY DEBATE.

Respected Sir,

I, on behalf of the Debating Society, seek your permission to organise the second edition of the CVS PARLIAMENTARY DEBATE. This event would span two days in the month of November. The dates are the 11th(Friday) and 12th(Saturday) of November.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic the society was not able to organise this event for the last two years. And now with your support, it would be an honour for us to organise this prestigious event. The event shall start from 9:00 A.M. in the morning and conclude at 5:30 P.M. in the evening on both days. CVS KNOCKOUT PD is one of a kind debating competition in Delhi University. It is the only knockout parliamentary debate competition in Delhi University. There will be 32 participating teams from all the colleges and universities across the Delhi NCR. The estimated footfall is 200-250 people. The estimated total expenditure for this event would be Rs. 32,700 (excluding 18% GST). An annexure explaining the event and listing our requirements is attached with this application.

We hope for a positive response with an honest guarantee from our end that the college premises and property will incur no harm during the preparation and course of the aforementioned event. Our appreciation for your guidance and support would be utmost.

Yours sincerely

Deeksha

Event Summary:

The CVS Parliamentary Debate is among the few prestigious parliamentary debating events organized in the Delhi debating circuit by major institutions. It offers students an opportunity to engage in constructive dialogue over pertinent matters. This year's iteration contained seven rounds distributed over two days.

The event began on day one with the opening address and motion announcement for the initial round, wherein debaters sparred thrice over the course of the day in debates lasting over two hours each.

The second day started with the fourth round, which was quickly followed by announcement of teams qualifying into the quarterfinals by the student organizers including Pratik Singh, Gaurav Chandra, Sarisha Palli, and Namit Mahendru.

Moving further with alacrity, the final round was conducted between teams attending from Sri Venkateswara College, Hindu College, and Shaheed Bhagat Singh College over the motion "THP a world where people prioritize Eudaimonic happiness over Hedonic happiness." The event culminated in Shaheed Bhagat Singh College securing a win by a margin of 6-5 from an 11 member panel composed of competitive student adjudicators.

Deeksha Sharma offered the vote of thanks on behalf of the organizing committee to wrap up the proceedings.

Participants experienced discomfort due to infrastructural issues pertaining to unavailability of water. E-certificates were provided to the participants afterwards. A detailed schedule of the event is attached here.

Number of Participants: 33

EVENT SUMMARY

ALACRITY - THE ANNUAL MULTI LEVEL DEBATE COMPETITION

Alacrity'23 the annual multi level bilingual debating event of Shaashtraarth - The Debating Society was conducted successfully on 11th of April in the college premises.

The event saw participation of over 30 debaters from various reputed institutions in and around Delhi NCR. The competition was conducted on the motion "THW ban the use of AI (deepfakes, voice moderators, etc.) by private institutions" for the first round as a conventional debate with speeches lasting 2.5 minutes each. The participants spoke skillfully and raised intelligent questions.

The event started with an address from the Vice President Pratik. Further, young members of the debating society Medhavi and Shivangi hosted the event. They elaborated the rules and called forth participants to present their views.

After a short break, 10 participants moved to the second round of the event which was conducted in the extempore format on unique motions. In one minute speeches, they argued on topics relating to climate, politics, and culture.

Mohit Jaiswal of IGNOU emerged as the winner of the event. Esteemed faculty members of the debating committee of the college from the Hindi and English departments including Pavitra Mam, Seema Mam, and Khushboo Mam judged the debate and offered certificates to the winners.

The event culminated with a vote of thanks by the student President Deeksha addressing the organization committee and the participants.

TENURE 2022-23

ABOUT SHAASTRAARTH

Shaastraath, The debating society of the College Of Vocational Studies is a dynamic club of powerful orators who prove their endurance by bringing laurels to the institution. It tries to ream the ethos of both the auditor and the rhetorician since debating helps one to celebrate our diversity and debate our differences while respecting the ideologies and beliefs of others. Shaastraath trains its members in various formats of debating.
