ANNUAL FESTIVAL VARUNAM '20

The NCC Naval Wing of CVS organized their annual festival "VARUNAM" on 2nd March, 2020. The chief guests for the day were Major (Retd.) D.P. Singh and Mrs. Rachna Bisht Rawat. Major DP Singh is a KARGIL WAR veteran and is INDIA'S FIRST BLADE RUNNER. He motivated the cadets with enthusiastic oration and metamorphosed the college environment into military exuberance. Mrs. Rachna Bishtrawat is a well-known author and has written many bestsellers like KARGIL and BRAVE. The main attractions of the Fest were ship modeling display and scuba diving display. The Fest commemorated twenty years of KARGIL WAR. As a tribute, a short skit on Kargil was enacted by the CVS NCC cadets. With the participation of fifteen-plus colleges, the fest provided a positive exposure to the cadets from different colleges by participating in more than half a dozen competitions. For the first time in CVS, a fest was covered through the drone videography. The main attractions were ship modeling display and scuba diving display. The Fest commemorated twenty years of KARGIL WAR. As a tribute, a short skit on Kargil was enacted by the CVS NCC cadets. PHOTOS:

NCC 'EX' YOGDAN 2.0

National Cadet Corps (NCC) has offered a helping hand to civilian authorities in the country's fight against COVID-19 by extending the services of cadets under 'Exercise NCC Yogdan'. NCC cadets have joined India's fight against the coronavirus pandemic, with civil and police administration of various districts seeking their services in the combat. The Ministry of Defence had recently allowed temporary employment of NCC cadets under 'Excercise NCC Yogdan' and guidelines were also issued. Only senior division volunteer cadets above 18 years of age were being employed. Cadets who return to their native places also spread awareness among the people around them and help them in every possible manner. About 25000 NCC cadets are being mobilised to provide necessary local assistance. The NCC EX Yogdan 2.0 was successfully conducted on 26th June, 2020 by Government of India with 2 DNU. 3 Cadets from College of Vocational Studies took part in this event ardently and fervently. The tasks envisaged for NCC cadets include, manning of helpline/call centres; distribution of relief materials/medicines/ food/essential commodities; community assistance; data management and queue & traffic management, making of mask and hand sanitizer. The cadets also helped in public places to keep social distance distancing and also provided water hand sanitizers and soaps in public places.

TREE PLANTATION

On the Occasion of Environment Day, 2 Delhi Naval Unit NCC organized a Tree Plantation Programme. During this programme, Cadets from 2DNU took part. 5 Cadets from College of Vocational Studies planted 200 plant saplings and spread awareness to the people about the consequences of cutting down the trees, bright side of afforestation and clean environment. We incite and stimulated people; specially the youth. Keeping fit and healthy is important at anytime but during pandemic, it was critical. Cadets plants trees to heal the environment and get rid of pollution. It was successfully done on June 5,2020.

COMBINED ANNUAL TRAINING CAMP'20

This camp is a compulsory camp conducted for all cadets every year. The duration of this camp is usually held for 10-12 days, (28 May to 6 June 2019) Cadets from College Vocational Studies took part ; enthusiastically and fervently. The camp not only enriches the students to participate more in these extracurricular activities rather get detailed knowledge and experience of these military camps which an ideal person would not seek. These camps make us strengthen the bond we share with everyone and get to know each other more by experiencing it together.
