INDEPENDENCE DAY

All of the College of Vocational Studies' students, including the NSS volunteers, participated in the celebration. A special morning assembly, flag-hoisting, and a variety of other celebration-related events were held on campus.

The participants enthralled the audience with their performances and inspired them to show their patriotism. The Tricolor was raised by our program officer and the NSS CVS Council collectively.

Throughout the entire campus, the National Anthem could be heard. In a speech, our principal reminded students and parents about the importance of teaching students about the sacrifices made by our great freedom fighters.

Students made a commitment to help create a new India free from casteism, poverty, and other social ills like corruption and terrorism. Students were dispersed at the conclusion.

TEACHER'S DAY

A celebration of Teacher's Day was held by the NSS unit of the College of Vocational Studies and other students. For our cherished teachers, a small event was planned on our college campus. "Guru Vandana" was the first event of the celebration after a formal greeting by students.

Our College's Principal, Prof. Inderjeet Dagar, graced the event with his presence. He claimed that educators are the foundation of a society that is progressive. He wished the teaching community well, provided a brief explanation of the significance of Teacher's Day, and urged them to support the development of the nation.

On this occasion, students sent smileys and flowers to teachers as a way to wish them a happy Teacher's Day.

The atmosphere was one of respect and appreciation as badges of appreciation were placed on each teacher. They were thanked for serving as an example and a source of inspiration.

As a show of appreciation for their cherished teachers, students gave a variety of performances during the event's conclusion, including dance, song, games, and other enjoyable activities. Teachers were taken by the students.

Happy New Year and best wishes for the future.

Everyone in attendance applauded throughout the entire program, and everyone's hearts will always hold a special memory of that day.

NSS DAY

The NSS Unit of the College of Vocational Studies observed September 28th, 2018 as NSS Day and celebrated with appropriate programs and activities. Every year, NSS Day is observed on September 24th across India. The National Service Scheme was launched in 1969, the birth centenary year of Mahatma Gandhi, in 37 universities, involving 40,000 students.

The team was practicing for the event for a long time, and they finally performed NUKKAD NATAK in the nearby slum to send across the message of cleanliness and hygiene. The team's performance had such a profound effect that a large number of people had gathered. Subsequently, the team talked to the crowd about the issues they were experiencing and gave them advice on the value of cleanliness.

We had many celebrations on this day, and each member participated in a different event and gave a passionate performance. This event started with a speech given by our principal, Dr. Inderjeet Dagar, and our NSS in charge, Dr. Bhupendar Singh.
Number of Volunteers participated : 180

NATIONAL YOUTH CAMPAIGN

On 28 October 2018, the NSS unit of the College of Vocational Studies celebrated the National Youth Campaign with the primary aim of sensitizing the students about the philosophies, principles, and ideas of NSS and the role of youth in it.

Fill the brain with high thoughts, the highest ideals, place them day and night before you, and out of that will come great work—Swami Vivekananda. The event started with lamp lighting and then the inspiring stories of Swami Vivekananda's life were briefed to the students, which made the session more interesting and captivating.

The students were educated about the relevance of his principles in the present world. Her lecture inspired the youth to lead a very happy and productive life, wherein we should be the donors of love. The inspiring stories of Swami Vivekananda's life briefed to the students made the session more interesting and captivating. This was followed by the pledge.

The program was well-received by all the faculty and students of NSS attended. At the end, the president of the NSS Council and some other students also expressed their views on the teachings of Swami Vivekananda and how he is the ideal role model for the youth of the country.

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS -

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit of College of Vocational Studies is the University of Delhi's chapter of the program, which was established by the Indian government's Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports as one of its public service initiatives. The intention is for students to develop attitudes toward social welfare and take actions that reflect those attitudes.

When it comes to serving society, the department of sustainable social development is the most adaptable. With the goal of raising awareness of sustainability, it engages in a variety of activities, such as a cloth collection campaign, works to address food waste in dorms, and supports the welfare of construction workers on campus.

The goal of Green Campus is to preserve the institute's greenery, which is constantly in danger due to the demand for infrastructural improvements. In a similar vein, solar panels have been installed on the roof of our college.

STREET PLAY

In terms of gifts from nature, water is the most priceless. It is a necessary aspect of life and is dependent upon the continuation of life. Because everything depends on water to survive, water conservation has become urgently necessary.

As a result, we should cooperate to conserve water in order to protect life. the necessity of water conservation is being communicated.

The College of Vocational Studies' NSS group performed a street play in a slum area after numerous rehearsals with the motto "Save water, save life." College students performed plays in which the importance of water conservation was emphasized. The gathering drew a sizable audience and was exceptionally well planned.

Through one-on-one mentoring and conversations with them, all women and children received a special focus on water conservation. After the entire event, everything was wrapped up, and all of the participants scattered to their homes.

POSTER MAKING AND SLOGAN WRITING COMPETITION

NSS-CVS had organized a poster-making competition for the college students. The competition's goal was to inspire students to use their imagination and be creative.

"Republic Day" served as the competition's theme. It was the interest of the students to illustrate their thoughts in drawings and paintings. With the help of numerous posters, the young students demonstrated their artistic talent. Students took part in the competition with a tremendous amount of zeal and enthusiasm and created a stunning poster that called the message: Let us all stand proud today and show respect to our country.

Watching these budding artists develop and present their concepts on paper was a wonderful experience. The students expressed their gratitude for the lesson. At the conclusion, prizes were given to every winner. They came up with amazing creativity. Everyone praised them for their initiative and hard work.
