ELECTORAL LITERACY CLUB

An Electoral Literacy Club (hereinafter referred to as ELC) under the aegis of NSS unit of college, is a forum for engaging students in meaningful activities and hands-on experience in order to educate them on their electoral rights and familiarize them with the electoral process of registration and voting. It has always been the college's responsibility to practice electoral literacy and carry out electoral obligations.

The ELC has representatives from among all stakeholders and the composition of the core is as follows:

1. Since the NSS Unit of our college has in the past conducted electoral literacy, the NSS Programme Officer will in addition to his PO duties, be the Coordinator of the ELC and six NSS students nominated by the PO will be a part of the core team, comprising of two Campus ambassadors, one student convener and three members.
2. The Administrative officer (admin) will be the staff representative of the club and IQAC Coordinator will be the faculty representative/member.

The names of the nominated students who shall be the part of ELC are as follows:-
